Course Policies. Every discussion of syllabi we read included something about course policies, although what specifically was included varied. We suggest the following topics:

Attendance, lateness – Students can make up 2 classes (maximum). Students have fifteen minutes after the class starts to get to class. Students, who show up over fifteen minutes late, are absent—no exceptions. Excuses should be in writing or scanned (and sent).

Class participation – We will be using programs found in the Tutorials folder on the C drive.

Missed exams or assignments

Lab safety/health : Please pay attention to your wallets and your phones. Please take your personal items with you wherever you go.

Academic dishonesty – Please prepare any homework assignments by yourselves. Document any use of other people’s papers,

Grading : Angel is 35% percent of your grade.

Participation, Attendance is 15 % of your grade.

Four in class writing assignments are 50 % of your grade.

(Note: Level V Students have a presentation that serves as a midterm)

Available Support Services: Please use the Green Section to do your homework (1218) in case you are unable to do your homework at home.
