For 500 points, create and present a storyboard in PowerPoint or an actual board with no less than ten and no more than twenty 4” X 6” frames that completely and successfully communicates all the elements in this short script:

“A man is driving at night through the Nevada desert. He’s far from home and civilization. He needs gas. He finds a gas station and pulls into it. There is no one at the station. His cell phone is not working. There is a pay phone nearby, but he has no change or calling card. He goes to his car and falls asleep on the front seat. When the sun rises, he wakes up and discovers that…” [You supply the ending]

- Please mount your storyboard on foam core for presentation to the class. You may also bring it as a PowerPoint presentation on your flash drive.
- You have 10 minutes for your presentation and 5 minutes for discussion.
- You should rehearse your presentation with other students, family or friends as your audience.
- You should take us through the board describing each frame and what information is communicated in it. Then you should present the board completely in a story-telling style.
- You may use color or black and white.
- You must use THICK MARKERS that read clearly across the room.
